Transylvania Community Arts Council

SUMMER ARTS ACADEMY

Policies

Photographic Release: Photographs of classes and students will be taken by TC Arts staff and representatives. Images may be used for marketing purposes including printed and social media, among others. Student and Parent/Guardian grant and convey unto Transylvania Community Arts Council (TC Arts) all rights, title, and interest in and to any and all photographic images, and video and audio recordings made by or on behalf of TC Arts during the Student's activities with TC Arts and the Summer Arts Academy, including but not limited to, any royalties, proceeds, or other benefits derived from such photographs or recordings.

Cancellations/Withdrawals/Refunds: TC Arts reserves the right to cancel any class with insufficient enrollment and will refund 100% of your registration fee. Notification of class cancellations will be made at least three (3) calendar days prior to the first day of class.

Any request for withdrawal or cancellation by Parent/Guardian must be made in person or over the phone at least ten (10) business days before the start of the class(es) to be eligible for a TC Arts voucher. Email and voicemail withdrawal WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED and any voucher that would otherwise be due will be forfeited. If notification of withdrawal is not received at least 10 business days prior to the start of the class, all fees paid for the class will be forfeited.

No monetary refunds will be given for a student's voluntary withdrawal. Instead, a TC Arts voucher, less a $50 processing fee, will be issued for future use.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY, MEDICAL RELEASE, & INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT: In consideration for Student being permitted by TC Arts to participate in the Summer Arts Academy, Student and Parent/Guardian hereby waive, release, and discharge any and all claims and damages for personal injury, death, or property damage which Student and/or Parent/Guardian may sustain or which may occur as a result of Student's participation in these activities. Student and Parent/Guardian understand, acknowledge and agree that: (1) This release is intended to discharge in advance the employees, officers, directors and agents of TC Arts from and against any and all liability connected in any way with the Student's participation in activities at TC Arts; (2) Student and Parent/Guardian voluntarily request permission for Student to participate in activities at TC Arts; (3) Student and Parent/Guardian expressly and specifically assume any and all risks of injury, death, harm or property damage, and release and hold harmless TC Arts, its directors, officers, employees and agents from all liability for injury, illness, death, or property damage resulting from Student's participation in activities at TC Arts; (4) This waiver, release and assumption of risk is to be binding on the heirs and assigns of Student and Parent/Guardian; (5) Student and Parent/Guardian indemnify and hold TC Arts and its directors, officers, employees and agents harmless from any loss, liability, damage, cost or expense, including litigation, which TC Arts and/or its directors, officers, employees and agents may incur as a result of any injury and/or property damage which Student and/or Parent/Guardian may sustain while participating in such activities; (6) Student and Parent/Guardian will make good any loss or damage or cost TC Arts and/or its directors, officers, employees and agents may have to pay if any litigation arises on account of any claim made by Student and/or Parent/Guardian and/or by anyone on Student's and/or Parent/Guardian's behalf; (7) In the event that Student requires medical or surgical treatment while under the supervision of TC Arts personnel in connection with the Summer Arts Academy, supervising personnel may authorize treatment; (8) Student and Parent/Guardian will pay all medical, hospital, or other expenses which Student and Parent/Guardian may incur as a result of such treatment; (10) activities and participation in the Summer Arts Academy are not childcare as defined by the State of North Carolina. Parent/Guardian certifies that Parent/Guardian has custody or is the legal guardian of Student by court order, and that Student is physically able to participate in the described activities. Student and Parent/Guardian have carefully read this Waiver of Liability, Medical Release, and Indemnification Agreement and fully understand its contents. Student and Parent/Guardian are aware that this is a release of liability and a contract between Student and Parent/Guardian and TC Arts, and that Student and Parent/Guardian sign it of their own free will.

Behavior Policy: To ensure a quality experience for all involved, TC Arts reserves the right to refuse/remove a student due to behavioral problems. If a situation arises and a student is asked to leave, class fees will be forfeited with no refund/voucher.

COVID-19 Safety: The health and safety of our community is our main priority. TC Arts adheres to all local and state mandates, follows CDC and NCHHS guidelines, and will adapt as necessary.

If staff, instructors, interns, volunteers, or students begin to experience illness or symptoms of COVID-19, they will be kindly asked to leave the facility or be picked up along with any siblings who are attending the program. TC Arts will communicate with families if a staff member, instructor, intern, volunteer, or student within their child's group is diagnosed with COVID-19.

2023 SUMMER ARTS ACADEMY

Class Descriptions

Art Exploration: These theme-based, creative art workshops offer art explorers an opportunity to use many art materials in many different ways. We will learn drawing, painting, printmaking, and sculpture techniques to make our unique works of art. (Session 2, 4; ages 6-11)

Broadway Bound!: Enjoy a fun and exciting week with friends who love to be on stage. Well-known musical theater show tunes will provide inspiration for a performance you will all star in that your family can see at the end of this week at TC Arts Summer Arts Academy! (Session 3, 5; ages 6-11)

Character Development & Animation with Mr. Koz. Enter the fascinating world of animation through combining a variety of techniques to create a story. Students will learn and apply traditional methods as well as digital art to create an animated scene. (Session 1, 4; ages 11-15)

Clay & Sculpture Creations: Discover the magical media of clay as we create pottery, sculpture, tiles and more. We will learn clay modeling techniques and glazing techniques as well as how clay might be combined with other materials. Each session will be based on a different theme. (Sessions 1, 2, 3, 4, 5; ages 6-11)

Drawing and Painting with Cindy Rehm. This opportunity to work with artist/ educator Cindy Rehm will introduce students interested in developing their skills to drawing, painting, and mixed media techniques. We will work from direct observation and imagination to create our works of art. (Session 2, 4; ages 11-15)

Drawing with Billy Smith: What an opportunity! Spend the week with local artist Billy Smith as he guides you in learning to draw. (Session 1, 3; ages 12-17, or with instructor's permission)

Fun with Photo Editing: In this class, we will explore different photo editing software to learn how to take our photos from "so-so" to "wow"! We'll also learn how to create and print greeting cards, invitations, and more. An iPad or laptop will be helpful for this class, but is not required. (Session 5; ages 11-15)

GarageBand: Learn the fundamentals of recording, composing, and audio production with Apple's free digital audio workstation, GarageBand! GarageBand is used by musicians, voice actors, and filmmakers to create original music and audio. With hands-on experience and guidance, students will create their own project by the end of the program. No musical experience is necessary. Requirements: An iPad or MacBook with the GarageBand App installed and some extra storage space. (Session 2; ages 6-11)

Introduction to Cartooning with Mr. Koz: Draw cartoon characters in this fun introductory cartooning class. Learn how to design your own characters, and construct fun facial features, eyes, hair, and costumes. (Session 1, 4; ages 6-11)

Introduction to Public Art and Murals with Billy Smith. This exciting workshop taught by Artist Billy Smith gives students an opportunity to collaborate with others in creating a public art mural. This rich course of study includes a walking tour of public art sites, learning about designing and presenting concept proposals and the creation of a mural to be painted and installed on site at TC Arts. This is a wonderful portfolio opportunity for the interested art student. (Session 2; ages 12-17, or with instructor's permission)

Introduction to Songwriting: Learn about the process of writing songs, from brainstorming to writing, and experimenting with rhyme and rhythm. (Session 2; ages 11-15)

It's a Snap! Introduction to Digital Photography: Digital photography is an amazing medium for young artists to learn to see and create. During this weeklong class, you will photograph a variety of subject matter and learn to enhance and alter your photographs. (Session 1, 2; ages 6-11[mornings]; ages 11-15 [afternoons])

Nature Art: Using a variety of art materials, learn new techniques while drawing and painting artwork inspired by the beauty of nature. Learning to look and see in combination with imagination will truly be a fun and exciting week at TC Arts Summer Arts Academy! (Session 1, 3; ages 6-11)

Paper Arts: Join local artist Patricia Dennis for this fun and exciting class where you will learn to make handprinted paper, and then turn that paper into different works of art. (Session 5; ages 11-15)

Pop Goes the Art: Inspired by contemporary art movements such as Abstraction, Surrealism, Pop and Op art, this class will engage students to create bold, imaginative, and inventive works of art. Come with an open mind and a desire to have fun! (Session 1, 3; ages 11-15)

Royals and Villains: Open the door to the rich world of Shakespearean characters through the lens of royals and villains. Explore the intrigue, humor, romance, and vengefulness of some of Shakespeare's most memorable plots. With a closing performance fit for a king's afternoon entertainment, this series will inspire teens to boldly walk the boards and speak the speech! This course will conclude with a public performance. (Session A; ages 11-16, or with instructor's permission)

Sculpture with Kyle Lusk: This workshop is an exciting opportunity to work with sculptor Kyle Lusk to explore creating three-dimensional artwork. Students will use a variety of materials such as wood, paper, metal, plaster, and found objects to create their sculptures. Be ready to try out new processes while having a great time. (Session 3; ages 11-15, or with instructor's permission)

Storybook Art: In this class, creativity, reading, writing, and art meet as you learn to express your ideas visually. We will utilize a variety of materials, techniques, and strategies in the process. (Session 5; ages 6-11)

Tweens/Teens Pottery Wheel Throwing: In this class for tweens & teens, participants will learn the basics of working on the potter's wheel, including wedging, centering, and using tools. Basic small to medium sized vessels (e.g., cylinders, bowls) will be taught. Students will also learn basic decoration and glazing techniques. (Session 2, 4, 5; ages 11-15)

Class Size Limitations

All classes are limited to ten students per class.
