SUMMER ARTS ACADEMY

Policies

Photographic Release: Photographs of classes and students will be taken by Arts Council staff and representatives. Images may be used for marketing purposes including printed and social media, among others. Student and Parent/Guardian grant and convey unto Transylvania Community Arts Council (Arts Council) all rights, title, and interest in and to any and all photographic images, and video and audio recordings made by or on behalf of the Arts Council during the Student's activities with the Arts Council and the Summer Arts Academy, including but not limited to, any royalties, proceeds, or other benefits derived from such photographs or recordings.

Cancellations/Withdrawals/Refunds: The Arts Council reserves the right to cancel any class with insufficient enrollment and will refund 100% of your registration fee. Notification of class cancellations will be made at least three (3) calendar days prior to the first day of class.

Any request for withdrawal or cancellation by Parent/Guardian must be made in person or over the phone at least ten (10) business days before the start of the class(es) to be eligible for an Arts Council voucher. Email and voicemail withdrawal WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED and any voucher that would otherwise be due will be forfeited. If notification of withdrawal is not received at least 10 business days prior to the start of the class, all fees paid for the class will be forfeited.

No monetary refunds will be given for a student's voluntary withdrawal. Instead, an Arts Council voucher, less a $50 processing fee, will be issued for future use.

WAIVER OF LIABILITY, MEDICAL RELEASE, & INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT: In consideration for Student being permitted by the Arts Council to participate in the Summer Arts Academy, Student and Parent/Guardian hereby waive, release, and discharge any and all claims and damages for personal injury, death, or property damage which Student and/or Parent/Guardian may sustain or which may occur as a result of Student's participation in these activities. Student and Parent/Guardian understand, acknowledge and agree that: (1) This release is intended to discharge in advance the employees, officers, directors and agents of the Arts Council from and against any and all liability connected in any way with the Student's participation in activities at the Arts Council; (2) Student and Parent/Guardian voluntarily request permission for Student to participate in activities at the Arts Council (3) Student and Parent/Guardian expressly and specifically assume any and all risks of injury, death, harm or property damage, and release and hold harmless the Arts Council, its directors, officers, employees and agents from all liability for injury, illness, death, or property damage resulting from Student's participation in activities at the Arts Council; (4) This waiver, release and assumption of risk is to be binding on the heirs and assigns of Student and Parent/Guardian; (5) Student and Parent/Guardian indemnify and hold the Arts Council and its directors, officers, employees and agents harmless from any loss, liability, damage, cost or expense, including litigation, which the Arts Council and/or its directors, officers, employees and agents may incur as a result of any injury and/or property damage which Student and/or Parent/ Guardian may sustain while participating in such activities; (6) Student and Parent/Guardian will make good any loss or damage or cost the Arts Council and/or its directors, officers, employees and agents may have to pay if any litigation arises on account of any claim made by Student and/or Parent/Guardian and/or by anyone on Student's and/or Parent/Guardian's behalf; (7) In the event that Student requires medical or surgical treatment while under the supervision of Arts Council personnel in connection with the Summer Arts Academy, supervising personnel may authorize treatment; (8) Student and Parent/Guardian will pay all medical, hospital, or other expenses which Student and Parent/Guardian may incur as a result of such treatment; (10) activities and participation in the Summer Arts Academy are not childcare as defined by the State of North Carolina. Parent/Guardian certifies that Parent/Guardian has custody or is the legal guardian of Student by court order, and that Student is physically able to participate in the described activities. Student and Parent/Guardian have carefully read this Waiver of Liability, Medical Release, and Indemnification Agreement and fully understand its contents. Student and Parent/Guardian are aware that this is a release of liability and a contract between Student and Parent/Guardian and the Arts Council, and that Student and Parent/Guardian sign it of their own free will.

Behavior Policy: To ensure a quality experience for all involved, the Arts Council reserves the right to refuse/remove a student due to behavioral problems. If a situation arises and a student is asked to leave, class fees will be forfeited with no refund/voucher.

Illnesses and Safety: If staff, instructors, interns, volunteers, or students begin to experience illness or symptoms of COVID-19 or other communicable disease, they will be kindly asked to leave the facility or be picked up along with any siblings who are attending the program.

Class Descriptions

Art Exploration: These theme-based, creative art workshops offer art explorers an opportunity to use many art materials in many different ways. We will learn drawing, painting, printmaking, and sculpture techniques to make our unique works of art. (Session 2, 4; ages 6-11)

Broadway Bound!: Enjoy a fun and exciting week with friends who love to be on stage. Well-known musical theater show tunes will provide inspiration for a performance you will all star in that your family can see at the end of this week at Summer Arts Academy! (Session 1, 3; ages 6-11)

Character Development & Animation with Koz. Enter the fascinating world of animation through combining a variety of techniques to create a story. Students will learn and apply traditional methods as well as digital art to create an animated scene. (Session 1, 2, 4; ages 11-15)

Clay & Sculpture Creations: Discover the magical media of clay as we create pottery, sculpture, tiles and more. We will learn clay modeling techniques and glazing techniques as well as how clay might be combined with other materials. Each session will be based on a different theme. (Sessions 1, 2, 3, 4; ages 6-11; Session 5; ages 7-12)

Creative Drama: This class will introduce students to beginning theater concepts through a variety of fun techniques, including theater games, creative movement, storytelling and role playing. The class will include an opportunity to demonstrate learning on our Arts Council stage. (Session 4; ages 6-11)

Designing Minds: This project-based class will review and strengthen students' understanding of the elements and principles of design and how those concepts are used in fine and applied art. This class is appropriate for the beginning or more advanced (portfolio student). (Session 4; ages 11-15)

Drawing and Painting with Cindy Rehm. This opportunity to work with artist/educator Cindy Rehm will introduce students interested in developing their skills to drawing, painting, and mixed media techniques. We will work from direct observation and imagination to create our works of art. (Session 2; ages 11-15)

Drawing with Billy Smith: What an opportunity! Spend the week with local artist Billy Smith as he guides you in learning to draw. (Session 2, 4; ages 12-17, or with instructor's permission)

Fun with Cartooning & Animation with Koz: Learn how to design your own cartoon characters, and construct fun facial features, eyes, hair, and costumes. We'll also explore various media animation art forms, including puppetry, flip books, green screen, stop motion and video editing, as we collaborate to bring out the magic in your storytelling! (Session 1, ages 6-11; 5, ages 7-12)

GarageBand: Learn the fundamentals of recording, composing, and audio production with Apple's free digital audio workstation, GarageBand! GarageBand is used by musicians, voice actors, and filmmakers to create original music and audio. With hands-on experience and guidance, students will create their own project by the end of the program. No musical experience is necessary. Requirements: An iPad or MacBook with the GarageBand App installed and some extra storage space. (Session 5; ages 7-12)

Interactive Pangram Books: Interactive books have parts that pop up or out, move, or otherwise encourage exploration. Pangrams are sentences that contain all 26 letters of the alphabet. Learn to create an interactive accordion book that illustrates a pangram of your choosing (examples will be provided).(Session 3; ages 11-15)

Introduction to Songwriting: Learn about the process of writing songs, from brainstorming to writing, and experimenting with rhyme and rhythm. (Session 5; ages 11-15)

Let's Paint!: Ever wished your paintings looked 3D!? Have fun painting anything you choose while learning skills that bring your artwork to life!" (Session 5; ages 7-12)

Nature Art: Using a variety of art materials, learn new techniques while drawing and painting artwork inspired by the beauty of nature. Learning to look and see in combination with imagination will truly be a fun and exciting week at Summer Arts Academy! (Session 1, 3; ages 6-11)

Performing Shakespeare's Comedy: Open the door to the rich world of Shakespearean comedic characters in this class. How do Shakespeare's comedic characters move? How do they sound? To what tune do they sing? In collaboration with the instructor, students will interpret a Shakespearean comedy through movement, voice, and music. Starting with the full text, the class will edit lines and meaning down to central themes, illustrating comedic characters in non-traditional ways. This class will inspire teens (and tweens) to boldly walk the boards and speak the speech! The class will culminate with a workshop style performance, open to the public, where students showcase what they learned. (Session A; ages 11-16, or with instructor's permission)

Picture That! Creating Photographic Images: Digital photography is an amazing medium for young artists to learn to see and create. During this weeklong class, students will photograph a variety of subject matter and learn to enhance their photographs before they press the button! (Session 2, 3, 4; ages 6-11[mornings]; ages 11-15 [afternoons])

Teens & Tweens Pottery Wheel Throwing: In this class for tweens & teens, participants will learn the basics of working on the potter's wheel, including wedging, centering, and using tools. Basic small to medium sized vessels (e.g., cylinders, bowls) will be taught. Students will also learn basic decoration and glazing techniques. (Session 1, 3, 5; ages 11-15)

Class Size Limitations

All classes are limited to ten students per class.
